

Footscray Community Arts Centre and Moving into Music present

Baby Has a Curly Line

A new series of interactive music experiences, designed especially for very young musicians.

Together, you and your baby will explore the surrealist works of Sidney Nolan and his peers, through sound and song, music-making, and a range of engaging multi-sensory activities. Guided by early childhood music educator Jennifer Stevens-Ballenger, you will learn new ways to nurture and extend the natural musicianship within your baby. Suitable for babies in arms, crawlers and early walkers, and their grown-ups.
